

Basic Abdominal Ultrasonography - Part I

Tuesday 10th of November 2020

-
- Lecturer: Viktor Szatmari, Assistant Professor, University of Utrecht
- Place: Eickemeyer, Solbakken 26, Hammelev, 6500 Vojens
- Program:
- 08.30-09.00 Coffee
- 09.00-10.00 How does B-mode ultrasonography work? How do the most common artefacts look like? How should I get perfect images with my machine? What to do with all those buttons?
- 10.00-10.15 Break
- 10.15-11.15 Ultrasonography of the liver, gallbladder and spleen. How to find these organs and related anatomical structures? What are the indications? What do the most common abnormalities look like?
- 11.15-11.30 Break
- 11.30-12.30 Ultrasonography of the kidneys and urinary bladder. How to find these organs? What are the indications? What do the most common abnormalities look like?
- 12.30-13.30 Lunch
- 13.30-13.45 Demo: How to find the liver, gall bladder, spleen, kidneys and the urinary bladder?
- 13.45-16.45 Practical session (3-4 persons/dog/instructor)
- 16.45-17.00 Evaluation
- Price: Kr. 3.800,- (Kr. 7.600,- for both courses incl. dinner and accommodation)
- Social event: Dinner for participants who join both courses - Basic and Advanced Ultrasonography

